

Dave McCauley
Emergency Response Officer
dmccauley@fness.bc.ca

Debriefing after the Wildfires

April 3-6, 2018

8:30-4:30 pm

Health Station

Dave will be doing one on one sessions, in the office or also can do home visits if necessary. Biography below.

Call Maxine at 250-989-2355 to book a session.

Dave McCauley operates his own business as an independent Emergency Services Management Consultant. Dave is currently employed as a casual employee with the FNESS group as an Emergency Response Officer and a Provider of CISM for the First Nations' Emergency Services Society of British Columbia (FNESS). Prior to that Dave has over 20 years of experience in Business Management, Merchandise and Marketing. He has over 20 years of active Structural Fire Service both as a Firefighter and Fire Chief; he has worked with the Upper Nicola Indian Band and the Coldwater Indian Band respectively as their Band Administrator and Fire Chief.

Dave is extensively involved with Critical Incident Stress Management (CISM) both as an instructor for Group Crisis Intervention and Individual Crisis Intervention & Peer Support certificate workshops for the International Critical Incident Stress Foundation (ICISF,) as well a coordinator and provider for crisis interventions. He holds certification as a provider and instructor for TFT (Thought Field Therapy), an alternative therapy used in the trauma field. He holds certification as a Certified Trauma Responder (CTR) with the Association of Traumatic Stress Specialists (ATSS). Dave also has training in HEARTMATH, heart rate variability applications are used in Stress Management Techniques. A qualified instructor and provider for CPR, holds EMA First Responder level III, Spinal Management and AED endorsements He currently remains active with a number of other Emergency Response Agencies, providing crisis management and other services to individuals and communities.

Dave is extensively involved within his community; a volunteer with the local Community Policing Office, a certified trainer / instructor for Hockey Canada Safety Program for the BC Amateur Hockey Association and also serves as the off-ice medical coordinator for the Merritt Centennials Junior A Hockey Club of the BCHL and also the Vice President of the Centennials as well as the Team Chaplain.

Dave resides in Merritt BC where he lives with his wife Carol and have two children, a daughter Alyssa, and a son Jonathan, both are graduates of Trinity Western University where both received their BBA degrees. Dave is an active supporter and an advocate for his people and is involved in the Indigenous Court process in Merritt as an Elder. He is a member of the Upper Nicola Indian Band.

Soda Creek Indian Band, 3405 Mountain House Road, Williams Lake, BC V2G-5L5